TYROLEAN MOUNTAIN HUNTING

HUNTING EXPERIENCE AT THE SOURCE

„To experience and feel mountain hunting means to walk the path that leads into the pathless wilderness, to unravel secrets, to see exuberant splendour. To feel fear and transience ... and austerity. Mountain hunting conveys a breath of freedom, is love for a piece of home, and puts the importance of man in perspective."

ERNST RUDIGIER

The secluded, game-rich mountain hunting grounds do not only guarantee a successful hunt, but also offer nature spectacles of a special kind!

Experience – surrounded by a unique mountain backdrop – the lush alpine rose blossom in spring, or the Indian summer in autumn.

The hunting grounds are high alpine mountain areas exclusively. Mountain fitness, good physical condition, health and appropriate equipment are therefore required.

There are hardly any roads accessible by car, and ascents of several hours and stalks up to well over 20 m above sea level are the norm.

· GENERAL INFORMATIONEN ·

Prerequisites for hunting in Tyrol
You need a valid domestic hunting licence to obtain the Tyrolean hunting card. Costs for the hunting guest card, valid for 10 days, amount to € 40.

Further requirements are:
A suitable weapon, preferably coordinated, appropriate ammunition, adjusted telescopic sight. A test shot is required prior to the hunt.

Deposit
When taking over the hunted game, we kindly ask to pay the required deposit within 14 days after receipt of delivery.

Shooting
The hunt is an individual hunt. Shooting must be discussed before the hunt and must correspond to the shooting plan.

Shooting can only take place when the game can be targeted and the shot is approved by the hunting guide. There is no entitlement to a certain condition and quality of the trophy.

With the kill, all fees become fully binding, even if the respective game does not meet the expected quality and price.

Trophies

The trophies will be handed over to the hunter after they have been boiled. They become the property of the hunter after full payment of the total fee and presentation at the obligatory trophy show. The hunter shall make the trophies available to the hunting administration at his own expense for presentation at the obligatory trophy show. Sending or collection of the trophies shall be at the expense and risk of the hunter. The game (including the skin) remains with the hunting administration for utilisation. If the trophy needs to be prepared, we are happy to recommend a good address. Boiling of the trophy € 45 (chamois and roe deer), € 105 (red deer).

Stalking fees per day

• Stag:	€ 150
• Chamois:	€ 150
• Marmot:	€ 50
• Black grouse:	€ 120

• Ibex:	€ 150

Test shot / Misses / Hunting weapon

Prior to the start of the hunt, at least 2 test shots in the presence of the stalking guide are required. If, for whatever reason, no test shot is taken in the presence of the stalking guide, the fee as stated in the shooting fees will be charged in the event of a miss (game not hit). The use of full metal jacket bullets is not permitted.

Shooting range fee:	€ 10
Weapon rental:	€ 50

No-kill shots

To kill game, you should only shoot from the right distance and under ideal conditions. No-kill shots are not appreciated. In such cases, the hunt is interrupted and a search is made using a tracking dog. If wounded game is not found or killed by a hunting guest prior the end of the hunt, the difference between the no-kill charge and the kill charge shall be paid by the shooter; thereafter the trophy is transferred to the shooter. Tracking dogs shall be paid for by the shooter.

Dogs
Taking hunting dogs along requires prior coordination.

Liability
Hunting and moving about within the hunting area is at the hunter's own risk.

Please note that even in July or August there is a possibility of snowfall in our mountain region.

In Austria, hunting is based on an old tradition of Germanic origin.

We never hunt for the sake of shooting or killing game. Our hunting philosophy is based on the search for game, the stalk, the right approach, and only then on the kill.

A word of advice to hunters
Respect local customs. A hunter, even if he carries a rifle or his game, is always welcome in Tyrol.
